TOP DECK

The entrance to the lift is just behind the funnel. The decking can be slippery when wet.

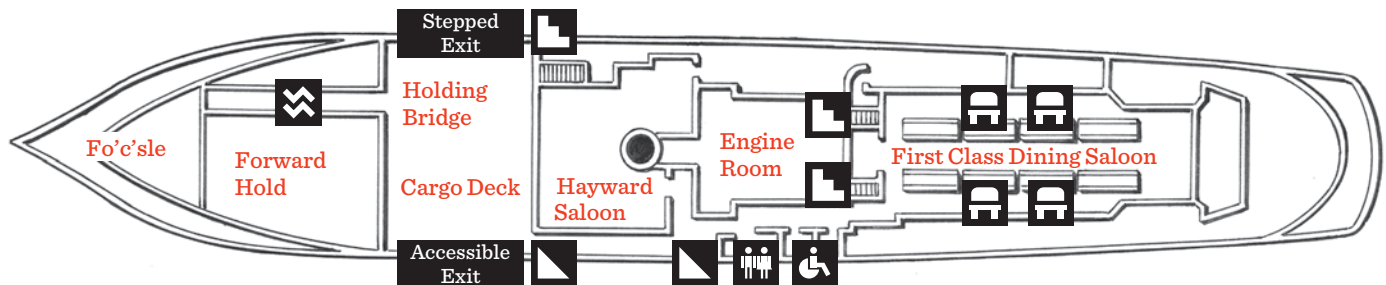

MIDDLE DECK

The upper Engine Room has a grilled floor but there is also a viewing platform on the deck below. There are two lifts on the ship. One goes from the Top Deck to the Middle Deck. The other goes from the Middle Deck to the Lower Deck.

LOWER DECK

All toilets on-board are situated on this level near the engine on the port (left) side of the ship.

DRY DOCK

This is the original Dry Dock where the ship was built, with features that date back to 1843. The cobbled floor is uneven but the flat walkway (shown in grey) provides viewing access.

BEING BRUNEL GROUND FLOOR

Be aware of trip hazards and reduced headroom in certain areas of the historic Dock Office.

BEING BRUNEL FIRST FLOOR

Both levels of the museum and Dock Office have wheelchair and step-free access following an alternative route. Please be aware that the Dock Office is an historic building with narrow corridors and doorways.
