

Brunel: History, Conservation & Legacy

Programme

9.30	10.00	Registration & tea/coffee
10.00	10.05	Housekeeping
10.05	10.30	Introduction: Tim Bryan (Director, Brunel Institute) Brunel In Print: his biographical and bibliographical legacy
		Part One – Brunel and Historical Research
10.30	11.00	Stephen K. Jones: (Institution of Civil Engineers) Docks & Coal, Coal & Docks: The Brunels in South Wales
11.00	11.30	James Boyd (Head of Research, Brunel Institute) Brunel's Networks
11.30	12.00	Rose Teanby (PhD Candidate, Photographic History Research Centre, De Montfort University) Brunel's Vision of the Future: Pioneering progress photography of the SS Great Eastern
12.00	12.15	Panel Questions
12.15	1.30	Lunch and displays/posters from National Brunel Network members
		Part Two – Conserving Brunel
1.30	2.00	Nicola Grahamslaw (Ship's Conservation Engineer, SS Great Britain Trust) The SS Great Britain
2.00	2.30	Trish Johnson (Bridgemaster Clifton Suspension Bridge Trust) The Clifton Suspension Bridge
2.30	3.00	Simon Gyde (Programme Manager, Network Rail) Brunel's Temple Meads
3.00	3.15	Panel Questions
3.15	3.30	Tea
		Part Three: Contemporary Engineering
3.30	4.00	John Parkin (University of the West of England) Civil Engineering Today: simply carrying on 'boldly imagining grand novelties'?
4.00	4.30	Christian Wolmar: Crossrail: Worth the Wait?
4.30	5.00	Questions and close