

Create Your Own Portrait

Sophia Hawes was Isambard Kingdom Brunel's sister and, like him, a talented artist. She enjoyed decorating ceramics and painting portraits of people. The picture below was probably drawn by her and shows her father Sir Marc Brunel.

Create your own portrait. You can either use the frame on the next page or draw your own on a blank piece of paper. It could be of your friend or a family member. You could even draw yourself in a self-portrait. Be as creative as you like!
